

Chris Tennent-Brown – ASB Senior Economist

Chris has spent over 20 years working in the financial sector. Chris's work has involved in monitoring and forecasting trends in the New Zealand economy, with a focus on drawing implications for financial markets and investments.

Beyond this experience in finance, Chris spent several years farming, and was a New Zealand representative cyclist.

Chris grew up and lives in and around South Auckland. In his spare time Chris likes cycling, cooking, reading, gardening and flying.